Police Crack Riesel Blinding

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (AP) — G-men and police poised today to crack the "wide open" blinding case "wide open" with the arrest of the mobsters who masterminded the April 5 attack on U. S. Attorney Paul Williams.

Williams disclosed Monday that the police were investigating the attack. Other "new" witnesses were scheduled for secret testimony today.

The grand jury disclosures were made as dozens of FBI agents and police detectives equipped with walkie-talkies searched a narrow section of the lower East Side Monday for a mystery woman "closely associated" with one of the suspects already in custody.

The search through the tough-infested area was abruptly halted Monday night. Neither the FBI nor police would reveal whether they had found the woman or her connection with the Riesel case.

The sudden search coincided with an abrupt change of heart by another mystery woman — Mrs. Rose D'Angelo, 42, who testified before the Riesel grand jury Monday to purge herself of contempt charges.

The FBI and police also joined, with Nassau County authorities to determine whether a nude-bodiless corpse found Sunday in New Canaan, Long Island, was that of a fifth New York hoodlum aide for knowing too much about the acid attack.

Measurements and a dental check indicated that the body might be that of Louis J. Musto, a fur trust hijacker who was a friend of Abraham Telvi, accused by the FBI of flinging acid into Riesel's face.

Telvi's body was found dumped in an East Side gutter on July 28. Two of the missing Musto accomplices in the $50,000 fur theft were found hanged to death with axes on the lower East Side on the same day. Their bodies were found wrapped in canvas in a stolen automobile.

Dr. Sterling P. Taylor, acting medical examiner, notified Coroner James J. Corrigan that death was suspicious and New Haven police moved into the case.

Check Background
He checked into the nurse's background and found that three other babies under her care had died and that two others had received injuries. They called the nurse in for questioning and she admitted that she had shaken the Kapsinow baby and four others.

Miss Jaspers said she shook the Kapsinow baby when the infant refused to take her bottle. She said she took hold of the child with both hands, pressed both thumbs into the infant's chest and shook her violently. The nurse was alone with the baby at the time.

She said she didn't want to harm the babies but said she would lose patience with infants and shake or squeeze them.

ANOTHER U. S. PLANE DOWNED

MAP LOCATES the Tachen Islands, the area where a Japan-based U. S. Navy patrol plane with a crew of 16 was shot down. The plane, a P4M-1 Martin Mariner (one shown lower) was powered by two jet and two piston engines. It was shot down 32 miles off the Communist China mainland and 160 miles north of Nationalist Formosa. The latest shooting is one of a series which have occurred up and down the Communist-held Asiatic coast.

Aid Comes To Man Who Wanted To Sell Eye To Pay Debts

BELLAIRE, Ohio, Aug. 28 (AP) — The nation opened its heart today to a father of four children, who because of mounting expenses from a rare illness, wanted to sell his left eye to "pay his own way."

The five-year siege of operations and medical treatments had backed off 33-year old Edward Newhart Jr. to the wall with financial difficulties.

The World War II veteran's decision to sell his eye was publicized in a United Press dispatch last week. He was unidentified in the story to spare his family embarrassment.

But today, Newhart said, "I can't remain anonymous in the face of such generosity."

Letters from all over the nation have poured into Post Office Box 282 at Bellaire, Ohio. Newhart opened the box in the hope someone might write and offer to buy his eye.

Stunned By Offers
"My wife and I are stunned by the amount of mail we are receiving," he said, "and by the unselfish offers of assistance in our troubles."

Newhart's troubles began in 1950 when he was suddenly stricken with Arnold-Chiari Disease. Operations were performed to keep his skull from becoming malformed. Unable to work, he slipped deeper into debt.

No one has yet offered to buy his eye. Instead, practically all of the letters contain contributions ranging up to $25. They urged him not to make the move.

Newspaper readers in Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Michigan, Kentucky, Florida and other states have sent money totaling almost $200. The letters are still coming.

Newhart said he was going to try to raise the money himself.

Coach Jim Callahan, assisted by Bill Furgerson and student assistant Joe Mittino and Stan Johnson, will be met by a known group of 45 players made up of 21 freshmen, two returning servicemen, 11 freshmen, and 11 non lettermen.

Callahan, assistant coach under former Mentor Fred Faurst is a Murray State graduate of 1940. Furgerson and Mittino are also MSC graduates. Furgerson in 1951, Mittino in 1952. Johnson is a graduate of Washington University in St. Louis.

The new head man is cautious about predicting the kind of season the Racers will have, pointing to a number of major difficulties.

First of these is that the Breds have but two lettermen at center and one at quarterback, Phillip Chesser and Chester Caddas are the centers, Jere Stripling the quarterback. Reserves for these positions will be transfers or freshmen prospects.

The freshmen who will wear the Murray colors for the first time Saturday include Leroy Berry of Sturgis, Ky., Richard Childress of Louisville, Tenn., Joe Dew of Louisville, Ky., Wayne Mayes of Hall, Tenn., Jerry Story and Jim Story of Mayfield, Ky., Dick Stout of Murray, Bud Williams of Murphysboro, Ill., and Ronnie Williams of Harrisburg, Ill.

Lettermen on the 1956 Thoroughbred squad are Jere Stripling, quarterback; Phil Foster, Richard Ulley, and Chad Stewart, halfbacks; Charles Akers and Dave Bottos, fullbacks; Phillip Chesser and Chester Caddas, centers; Al Giordano, Ray Rogers, Marlen Henley, Cletus Cagle, guards; J. D. Burdin, Bill Hina, and John Daniels, tackles; Don Heine, Calvin Vest, Don Sparks, Don Hetherington, and Charles Bush, ends.

Urge Benson To Allow Tobacco Men In Soil Bank

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP) — Sen. Earle C. Clements (D-Ky.) Monday called on Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson to allow tobacco farmers whose crops were damaged by hailstorms to participate in the soil bank program.

Clements wired Benson that damage in western Kentucky counties, especially Christian, Logan, Simpson, Warren and Hopkins, had wiped out the only cash income of many growers.

He said many of the farmers had exhausted credit resources and would be unable to continue operations until the sale of next year's crop without the chance to recover some of their funds through the soil bank program.

The soil bank program closed July 22 and the Department of Agriculture has not replied to farmers in a number of states according to Clements.

Clements said it is too early to determine the extent of damage caused by the insects, but he said it is heavier than normal.

The department's weekly cooperative economic insect report said grasshoppers and European corn borers continue as leading problems in several states. Cotton insects also are on the increase, and vegetable insects are damaging crops in various sections of the country.

The department said several insects have increased their range. For the first time, the sweetpotato aphid has been found in Mississippi, Virginia, and Kentucky; the spotted alfalfa aphid in North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, and Virginia; the rhodes-grass scale in Arizona, and a barberry leafworm in Delaware.

The European corn borer, always a heavy destroyer, has caused widespread damage this summer and continued to reproduce heavily in areas of Illinois and Minnesota. The fall army worm continued to damage corn, grains, and grasses in several states. Maryland, Delaware, and West Virginia were damaged by corn sap beetles.

SELLS SUIT AND SAVINGS
SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP) — Charles Yetman, 39, was just a bit out with his wife, Winifred, for selling his old suit to the ragstore for 14 cents. He had stashed away $72 in the pockets.

Woman Offers Money
A North Braddock, Pa., woman asked Newhart if she could send him $5 or $10 every week. "I am only one of thousands of people that would like to help," she wrote.

A Wapakoneta, Ohio, woman whose son was wounded at Anzio, said her boy was all right now and "God also will come to your aid."

From Newport, Ky., another woman wrote that "many people in your situation would turn to dishonest means to get money." She enclosed $20.

A Morgantown, W. Va., mother said she was sending a clipping of the story to her son serving with the armed forces overseas in the hope that he and his buddies would help.

An Abington, Pa., woman said she wrote a Philadelphia newspaper letter urging its readers to keep him from "forgetting one of his precious eyes."

Get Children Immunized Says Cooper

R. L. Cooper, County Health Administrator urges all parents to carry their children to their family physician and secure polio immunizations. Your doctor has a good supply of free vaccine and you will only be charged for administering it, he said. Vaccine for use at the health department is very limited so parents should contact their family physician.

Three years ago Calloway County had a polio outbreak during September and October. We should do everything possible to prevent another outbreak.

Mr. Cooper stated that according to records in the health department only about 35 per cent of the estimated eligible population of Calloway County had received one polio injection and 24 per cent had received two injections. This included those that received their immunizations in the mass immunization program of last year.

Public health officials consider that 70 to 80 per cent of population immunized will prevent outbreak of epidemic proportions. Even though the case rate is low throughout the country the Chicago outbreak of only a few weeks ago should be warning to all of us, he continued. In the section where this outbreak occurred, polio immunization rate was very low.

Mrs. Bonnie Houston Moore Miraculously Escapes Death

Mrs. Bonnie Houston Moore of 338 Hobart Blvd., Los Angeles, California and a former resident of Calloway County was injured in an automobile-train collision this week.

She is now resting in a Los Angeles hospital. A report to her sister Mrs. Ruby Farmer is that she is not seriously injured.

A clipping from the Herald-Express of Los Angeles describes the accident which could have resulted in the death of Mrs. Moore and her granddaughter.

"Trapped between the lowered gates of a railroad crossing with a train hurtling upon them, an elderly woman and her small granddaughter escaped almost miraculously today from a terrifying death."

"The girl leaped from the car and ran to safety before the train smashed the car into a heap of twisted wreckage. But the older woman was dragged 125 feet in the mangled auto. She received major injuries but was reported in 'good condition' at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital."

"The grandmother, Mrs. Bonnie Houston Moore, 70, of 338 S. Hobart Street was driving with little Bonnie Houston, 8, beside her, when the car became caught on the tracks and could not move forward nor backward because of obstructed wheels."

"Mrs. Moore swerved her car sharply to the left an instant before the Southern Pacific freight train hit the car at the crossing at Sherman Way and Laurel Canyon road in North Hollywood."

"She was extricated from the wreckage, taken to the hospital and treated for possible skull fracture and numerous contusions."

Paducah, Aug. 28 (AP) — The mysterious bomb-slaying of band-leader Vivian Chaudet remained unsolved today after an autopsy Monday failed to reveal what caused the death of a former auditor of Chaudet's wife.

Reuben Crews, 34, a physician at the Paducah hospital, questioned at length Saturday by Paducah police. Crews was found dead at his parents' home at Hollow Rock, Tenn., Sunday.

Chaudet, 41, a produce salesman and dance band pianist, was fatally injured when a bomb under the front seat of his car exploded early Saturday.

An autopsy requested by Paducah police was performed on Crews' body but it failed to reveal the cause of death. Tennessee authorities said Crews had suffered from a heart ailment.

Chief of Detectives Tighman Tade said Crews' stomach was removed and sent to the FBI Crime Laboratory for further tests to determine if it contained any trace of poison or drugs. The laboratory is also checking bomb fragments.

Tade said that Crews denied any connection with the bombing while being questioned this week. Police questioned him because he had been a suitor of Dorothy Mitchell, a 24-year old Reiland school teacher, whom Chaudet married secretly two weeks ago.

Mrs. Chaudet said she last saw Crews Thursday or Friday when he came to her mother's home, and she told him she wouldn't go out with him again.

She said that Crews never had threatened her for going with Chaudet and that Chaudet never had mentioned being threatened by anyone.

Chaudet touched off the bomb which took his life when he rushed to his car to drive to his new home after a telephone call telling him it was on fire. The home also caught fire in June and investigators believe both fires were set deliberately.

Rocky Tries For Disc Position

By OSCAR FRELEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK AP — Rocky Graziano, the "Somebody Up There Likes Me" man, is hoping today that "somebody out there likes me."

The reason for the switch in the philosophy of the former middleweight champion is that today he took over a radio disc jockey show for a week. It's a sort of promotion bout with the winner among a half-dozen substitutes winning up as the permanent "artist."

"I wasn't this noxious the night I beat Tony Zale for the title," the Rock admitted, slipping momentarily from his new diction back to the old.

Actually, after a long series of television appearances, the Rock regards himself as a bonafide off-beat thespian. He is grateful for the chance which came his way and his voice roughens with emotion when he considers his rise from a tieless exposer to a well-dressed man about town.

Used To Stares
"Appearing in front of people wasn't too tough because a fighter has to get used to people staring," he explains. "But what gets me is the fine way I've been accepted."

"In the old days," he recalls, "they cheered for me mostly when I was beating somebody's brains out. It was like being a freak of sompin'. But when somebody puts me on the back now, I know they are looking on me as a human being."

It's a long way that the one-time thief, hoodlum and gutter fighter from the lower East Side has come. Certainly the Rock can be an example for other underprivileged and wrong-road youngsters.

"I learned to steal before I learned to read," admits the Rock, who at 34 finally has found the high road. "In those days, I guess my biggest dream was to be a big shot racket guy. Looking back, I know I've been real lucky."

Off On Wrong Foot

For young Rocco Barbellia got off on the wrong foot and on the wrong side of the law. His thievery landed him in the reformatory and his belligerence promised a bitter ending. But in the end, it was his ability and willingness to fight which saved him.

That, plus the fact that he learned to be honest and discovered that the world is eager to give anybody a chance. It was a long metamorphosis. He already was a fighter of sorts, when he was drafted and wound up in Fort Leavenworth for socking a captain.

Bessent Retakes Dodger Lead Monday

Confident As They Enter 16 Game Card With 2nd Division

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

Back on the Braves' heels again, because skinny Don Bessent pitched like Clem Labine at his greatest, the Brooklyn Dodgers set sail today into a schedule of 16 straight games against second-division teams with their pennant hopes flying higher than ever.

Bessent, who took over as the Dodgers' No. 1 artist when ace Labine broke a bone in his wrist last week, blanked the Braves for four innings Monday to get credit for a clutch 6-3 victory. He now has pitched 23 straight shutout innings.

It was the Dodgers' "biggest" win so far this year, for it put them back two games behind Milwaukee with a split of their two-game series.

Now, only one game behind in the vital "lost" column, the Dodgers feel the schedule favors them in the run to the wire. Here's why: Of the 33 games they have left, a whopping 27 are against second-division teams and only six against top teams. By contrast, the Braves play first-division teams in 14 of 31 games, and third-place Cincinnati meets the leaders 14 times in 29 games.

Allows Only One Hit

What's more, Brooklyn is the only contender with more home games left than road games. They play 20 of their remaining 33 at cramped but cozy Ebbets Field, where they hit so many homers. The Braves have 14 home games left, the Redlegs only 10.

Thin, pale-faced Bessent, gaining his first victory of the year in relief of staff ace Don Newcombe, allowed just one hit in four frames and was boosted to victory by two key plays.

Pitcher Gene Conley of the Braves made the first play. With runners on first and third in the top of the eighth and the score tied, 3-3, he fished Carl Field, one-bouncer and chose to throw to the plate instead of trying for a double play. Before baserunner Jim Gilliam was tagged out in a rundown, the Dodgers had runners at second and third.

That set up the second play. Jackie Robinson was purposely passed to pitch to Campanella. Campanella singled to score all three runners, Robinson coming all the way home from first when the outfield relay was slow.

Slider Cracks 35th
That gave Brooklyn a 6-3 lead and Bessent kept the Braves at bay.

The Braves had built up a 3-0 lead against Newcombe on Joe Adcock's solo homer in the second and Bobby Thomson's two-run homer in the fourth. Duke Snider of the Dodgers cracked his 35th homer with a man on in the sixth and the Dodgers tied the score in the seventh when Robinson doubled and Sandy Amoros singled.

Conley explained his decision to throw home: "I was told to watch home."

The only other major-league action Monday saw Chico Carrasquel drive in three runs with a pair of homers to lead Cleveland to a 5-2 victory in a night game at Washington.

Nothing Is Sure In Playing Winning Golf

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Jerry Barber, Los Angeles, Calif., is the latest in a long line who will testify there is no such thing as a "sure shot" in the unpredictable game of golf.

The little guy of golf, who is known as one of the best putters in the game, missed a five footer Sunday which he thought was "a sure thing" on the last hole of the St. Paul Open that cost him the title for the second straight year.

If Barber had made it, he would have tied Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N. Y. Souchak blazed past 17 golfers who were ahead of him, going into the final 18 holes with a 10-under par 63 to tie the Keller course record. He finished with a burst of six straight birdies to wind up with a 271, seventeen under par.

It was the second straight year Barber lost the St. Paul Open after he appeared to have it in the bag. Tommy Bolt of Houston, Tex., passed Barber on the last three holes last year to come home in front.

Bolt, the defending champ, and Bob Rosburg of San Francisco, tied for third place with 273, fifteen strokes under par.

Packers And Bears Will Threaten National Title

By UNITED PRESS

Based on their early pre-season form, the San Francisco Forty-Niners, Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears will be stepping on a lot of toes in the National Football League this year.

The Forty-Niners, who knocked off the defending champion Cleveland Browns last week, looked just as strong Sunday in blanketing the Washington Redskins, 20-0, at San Francisco.

Green Bay also posted its second straight victory by, downing the

New York Giants, 17-15, Saturday night at Green Bay, while the Bears turned back the Philadelphia Eagles, 28-21, at Philadelphia.

In other weekend games, the Baltimore Colts whipped the Pittsburgh Steelers, 37-16, at Cincinnati; the Chicago Cardinals edged the Detroit Lions, 20-17, at Mobile, Ala., and the Los Angeles Rams whipped Cleveland, 17-6, at Los Angeles.

Thus, after only 13 exhibition games, the Forty-Niners, the Packers and the Bears remain as the only unbeaten teams among the 12 squads turning up for the start of the regular season, Sept. 30.

The Packers will get their first real test next Saturday night when they play the Browns at Cleveland, while the Bears will meet the Redskins the same night at Little Rock, Ark. The Eagle face the Lions at Miami Friday night, the Giants play the Rams

TOBACCO CURING NEWS

By UNITED PRESS
Kentucky tobacco growers today were assured of continued favorable weather to curing of leaf.

The U. S. Weather Bureau reported that relative humidity will range from a low this afternoon of 48 per cent to a high tonight of between 65 to 90 per cent.

Growers were advised to open ventilators of barns housing air-cured tobacco by 7 or 8 a.m. and close them by 5 or 6 p.m. unless a shower seems likely. Wednesday will be continued warm and showery.
